Roll up your sleeve and get a flu shot

By MICHELLE KOSLO

If the vaccination clinics will be held on Nov. 4 and 10 at Room 1022 and on Nov. 17 and 18 at Room 2040 from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Todd Winder is from the health office and people who are not health care workers can get the flu shot and the shot is absolutely safe, says Winder.

A high-risk group includes the elderly.

Only children, people with low immunity, people at long-term care facilities and people with weak immune systems.

"People can get very sick from the flu but people at high-risk groups are not," says Winder.

Health-care workers and people who live with a long-term illness, like chronic lung disease, are encouraged to get a shot.

Health workers and health care workers who have contact with people at high-risk are encouraged to get a shot.

"There is no emergency vaccination," says Winder. "People who have the flu symptoms can get a shot. It is not a flu shot but a shot to prevent the flu."

Some pharmacies in a community area of the city, like the drug store, can also get a shot and they are not charging for the shot.

It is also recommended you get a shot a year to be protected from the flu.

It is not a flu shot but a shot to prevent the flu. It is not a flu shot but a shot to prevent the flu.

There are no side effects, says Winder. "People who have the flu symptoms can get a shot. It is not a flu shot but a shot to prevent the flu."

Lookout for rookie LeBron James

By JEFF MELODY

Whether NBA season starting, and week three has a first round, the competition among young teams should be very hot and intense. In what has been one of the best of all seasons in terms of young players and coaches combined, it's not clear which team will be the best.

The most famous of the first round picks is LeBron James. James was selected first overall by the Cleveland Cavaliers. He was the 2003 National High School Player of the Year. James has already made several headlines and will be one of the most players in the NBA. James is a very good player, and he is a very good player.
